At the recent meeting of Paris Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. Gus Margolen, of Paris, worthy Matron, was presented with a beautiful bouquet of lovely flowers by her brother, Mr. Leon Levi, of Covington, in the presence of almost the entire membership. Mrs. Margolen accepted the gift in a short talk full of feeling, attesting her interest in the order, and her appreciation of the sentiment which prompted the remembrance.

BASKETBALL AT THE "Y"

Friday night saw the opening of the season for basketball at the Y. M. C. A., and in a game which was hotly contested and exciting from start to finish, Georgetown College defeated the Y. M. C. A. team 41 to 39, twenty-four of Georgetown's points being made in the first half, while the "Y" was accumulating 14. The second half was virtually the first half turned upside down, with the "Y" fathoming 25 points to Georgetown's 17. With a little more luck the "Y" team would have been returned victors over a basketball team that ranks high in college athletics. Kenney and Burnett were the outstanding stars in the "Y" lineup, with Chipley, McIntyre and Meglone performing in good style. The only substitute made was Roberts for Meglone. The team as a whole displayed much better form than it was thought possible for so early in the season, and came from behind in the second half with a rush that all but overtook the fighting Tiger quintet. The next game on tap will be played with the Lexington Y. M. C. A. representatives next Friday night, December 15, on the local "Y" floor. A good crowd was out for the opener and another large gathering is looked for in the game with the Lexington net men.

FIREMEN HAVE TWO CALLS

People going to their work at an early hour Saturday morning saw what they thought to be clouds of smoke issuing from the Western Union telegraph office, in the Daugherty building, near the corner of Main and Fifth streets, and sent in an alarm from Box 46. When the firemen arrived they broke open the street door, only to find the supposed fire to be clouds of steam issuing from an improperly connected pipe in the steam radiator. The firemen turned off the steam. The only damage was a broken front door lock.

A few moments after this another alarm, called the firemen to Hanson street, where a one-story frame cottage, belonging to Mrs. Carrie Innis Fisher, and occupied by colored people, was in flames. Practically all their household goods were destroyed by the flames, which had gained considerable headway before the firemen arrived. The firemen directed their efforts to saving the adjoining property, which was threatened by the flames. The cottage was entirely destroyed. Loss about $1,000, partly covered by insurance.

—The feature of the next meeting of the Bourbon County Woman's Clubs, which will be held in the Club rooms, on Broadway, to-morrow afternoon, under auspices of the Art Department, will be an illustrated lecture by Henry Scott Hincks, of Lexington. Mr. Hincks' subject will be "The Religious Idea of Art." The lecture will be illustrated with slides showing particularly the work of the painters of the Italian Renaissance and will include several famous Madonnas by different masters. Mr. Hincks is instructor in the Department of English at the University of Kentucky, and is a graduate and former instructor in Brown University, at Providence, R. I.

—The community card party at the Masonic Temple, under auspices of the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League, proved one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season, and the sum realized for the benefit of the tuberculosis fund was most gratifying to the promoters. The hall was decorated with cedar, Christmas bells and crepe paper, suggestive of the Christmas season. More than one hundred persons gathered to enjoy an afternoon of bridge, five hundred, fifties and forty-two. The success of the evening was largely due to the untiring efforts of the chairman, Mrs. Hiram Redmon. She was assisted by a corps of workers, who saw to the comfort and pleasure of the players. At the conclusion of the games, coffee, sandwiches and home-made candy was served. More than $80 was realized, which, added to the sum realized from the sale of Red Cross seals, totaled about $250.
